CHRISTMAS EVE

THERE is music in the chimney-On the hearth a genial glow, Now the house is making ready For old Santa Claus, I know. 'And the tune the chimney's singing Is a merry roundelay: "Joy and cheer-

Christmas 's here, And old Santa 's on the way."

Every spark that mounts the chimney Is a fairy of the fire, Daneing up to watch for Santa Suiling higher, higher, higher, Till, amid the stars that twinkle, On the sky pathway they pause, Gaze and blink, Nod and wink, Waiting for old Santa Claus.

All the coals that glow and sparkle On the hearth or in the grate And the embers there assembled Are but eager eyes that wait For Kris Kringle, who is coming With his pack of sweets and toys, Sledge and deer, Bringing eheer To a million girls and boys.

Steps of Postoffice in Calcutta Begar to lluige and Populace to Wonder.

PROSAIC EXPLANATION MADE.

In Calcutta a portion of the pavement near the steps of the general postoffice began to bulge and one of the heavy stones of the steps was god Shiva on the spot and that the god was rising to the surface. Some Mohammedans, on the other hand, said that the Black Hole tragedy occurred there, and that the dead bodes of the brave Europeans who were cruelly massacred by the Nawab Siraj were rising up to wreak a dead-vengeance upon the Mohammedans.

Another timid person invented a curious story which spread great consternation among the up-country Oorays and Hindus. He declared that underneath the stone pavement there was once a grave and the spirit of the was coming out of the earth to produce great havoc among the peaceful citizens of Calcutta. This story made a great impression on many of the bystanders, some of whom sheered off lest the ghost lay his hand on those near him. Some

The crowd had rather thickened and the excitement had not subsided Some eight constables were appointed to clear the traffic and secure order.

among the Mohammedans by the dis covery below the flagging of the impression of a hand-Punjsb, as the Mohammedans say, This is the Mohurrum standard, certainly in Bengal, and a strong belief prevails among some of the unlettered of the community that underneath is the tomh of a pir (saint), and it is taken by some as a sign of the return of Mohammedan ascendency,

The presaic explanation of the oc currence is that the flagging was laid some years ago above a trench of the old fort. It is assumed that an accumulation of water under the pavement caused a large flagstone to bulge, assuming the appearance of tomb. - Exchauge.

CHRISTMAS REMOVAL SALE

At Pollock's Jewelry Store

RIGHT in the midst of the Christmas shopping season, Pollock, the Jeweler, continues his great Removal Sale, for, by January 1st, we must be ready to move from our present quarters at 640 Broadway. Every dollar's worth of our fine Diamonds, Watches and Jewelry must be sacrificed, for we wish to move as little stock as possible.

Being manufacturers, we make prices which no other Paducah jeweler may hope to match. Christmas is only a few days off and it will pay you well to buy your gifts from the maker. It's true we are a little out of the business district, but the chance to save half on Christmas Jewelry should be inducement to bring you an extra block or so to our store.

I'ts in the Empire Flat Building.
